Hi Subhadeep,

I wanted to take a moment to appreciate the great ownership you have consistently shown in your work and responsibilities.

One thing that really stands out about you is how proactively you take initiative. You do not wait to be reminded, and you often come up with new ideas and improvements on your own. That level of accountability and self-drive is highly valuable.

You have also handled System Design responsibilities very well, especially in following up and taking care of the evaluation components with sincerity and consistency. On top of that, you did a really good job in creating Contest 2 end-to-end under my guidance, and I appreciate the effort and seriousness you brought to it.

What I value equally is your passion for teaching. The feedback from students about your sessions has been consistently very positive. You connect with students well, understand them, and create a strong learning experience for them.

You are also someone that people look up to, and they have belief in you because of the consistency, ownership, and intent you show in your work. That trust is something you have earned through your actions.

Please keep this up. Your effort, ownership, and commitment are clearly visible, and they are appreciated.

Best regards,
Aditya
